“ Aunt Lois was a loving, faithful Christian who was not only my aunt, but also my godmother. I will miss our phone conversations, and it seems surreal that I will not be able to see her again this side of heaven. I can still hear her voice and her infectious laughter, and I hope that sound never fades from my memory. We all have our own memories to cherish, and I hope my cousins find comfort that Aunt Lois is free from pain, and in heaven praising her Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. She is now reunited with so many loved ones who have been waiting to welcome her to her eternal home. May we all remain faithful so we too will see her again in eternity. Hugs and prayers to all of you.
