“ I had the extreme pleasure of hanging out with Lorna on the weekends for the past almost 5 years. Lorna very much loved her days growing up on the farm around Alta and she told the best stories about her siblings (riding a horse to school)(bringing the cats in to sleep with) and her children (so many stories!). She loved playing the piano and loved to listen to the old time hymns. I will miss Lorna's laughter as she talked about her life that was richly enhanced by her relationships with family and friends.
