“ LuVerne will be greatly missed by the Remsen community. He was a beloved resident at Happy Siesta Care Center. He was kind, compassionate and a very holy man. We loved taking communion to him on the weekends. He was so insightful to talk to and was always so appreciative to receive the Eucharist. He always called us "you people" and was quick to add words of praise for the day and thanks to God.

Our prayers are for LuVerne and his family. May God's perpetual light shine upon him, and may the souls of all the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace.
