

Lyndon L. Evans

March 19, 1943 - November 28, 2025

Lyndon L. Evans, age 82, of Storm Lake, Iowa passed away November 28, 2025 at Methodist Manor in Storm Lake.

Per his wishes, no formal service will be held. Memorials may be directed to St. Jude Children's Research Hospital. The Fratzke & Jensen Funeral Home in Storm Lake is in charge of the arrangements.

Lyndon was a gentle, selfless man who spent his life putting others first. He carried a steady kindness that never sought attention and a quiet strength felt by everyone who knew him.

He is survived by his wife, Sherri; his two sisters; his son Rodney Evans and wife Heidi, and their four children; and his daughter Diane Dykstra and husband Dave, their three children, and two great-grandchildren.

Lyndon grew up in a large family, surrounded by his three brothers and five sisters. He attended school at Mount Ayr Community School. Lyndon was united in marriage to Sharon "Sherri" Lea Lucas on January 23, 1962.

Lyndon worked for many years as a skilled woodworker for Dobson Pipe Organ Builders in Lake City, leaving his craftsmanship in instruments played around the world.

Tribute Wall

JM

“ John McGilvrey lit a candle in memory of Lyndon Evans

John McGilvrey - December 02, 2025 at 06:25 PM

JT

“ I worked with Lyndon all the years he was at Dobson. There wasn't anything he couldn't build out of wood. I enjoyed his sense of humor and friendship. He was always be remembered. Jon Thieszen

Jon Thieszen - December 01, 2025 at 07:55 PM

DD

Thank you Jon. He certainly was a talented woodworker and I'm glad you got in on his sense of humor:) we miss him so much already.

Diane Dykstra - December 02, 2025 at 05:31 PM