Lynn was born on April 25, 1932 in Alta, Iowa, the oldest child of Nettie (Lindlief) and Raymond Faust. He met his future wife, Louise Fondroy shortly before Uncle Sam called him to serve his country. He was very proud of his time in the military. He served two years with sixteen months of that time in Korea in a combat area. He trained at Fort Sill in heavy artillery and spent his time in Korea in the mountains surveying in the points for aiming and shooting. While he was up in the mountains surveying, the group stopped to eat their C rations, and they came upon three Koreans. They couldn't tell if they were friends or enemies. Those of you who knew Lynn will not be surprised to learn that he didn't shoot. Instead, he shared his C rations. It became a routine. The Koreans always seemed to know where they were at every day they would show up where they were eating. One day they indicated they wanted the boxes because they used them to build shelter.

Lynn returned home to start farming and marry Louise Fondroy. Farming was his passion, and he spent the rest of his life feeding and caring for his cattle and crops with his son Steve. Nancy moved to California to build a career as a personal trainer. While she built her career another person joined their family. Nancy married Christopher Mankiewicz.

Besides farming Lynn found time to serve his church as an usher, trustee, elder and many years he and Louise were sponsors for the church youth group. He was a 4-H leader for fifteen years. He joined the Masonic Lodge and became a past Master. He also joined the Elks Lodge and was a past Exalted ruler.

The family always found time to have fun camping and traveling to Montana to buy cattle. Later they enjoyed their home in Okoboji.

He had a life well lived and will be missed.

“Louise, Nancy, & Steve~We are so very sorry to hear of Lynn’s passing. We cherish the many memories of the “end of the school year” parties at your farm, the get togethers at your lake home in Okoboji were a blast, & the time that you hosted a RAGBRAI Team for a group that Steve was their support guy & drove their bus. We helped make & serve your homemade spaghetti to the hungry bikers, a big hit for sure!! So many fun times. We are keeping you all in our thoughts & prayers & may you find peace & comfort in your memories.

R.I.P. Lynn 🙏🙏🙏
