“ This is so surreal to me. My first experience with Marita was at Camp Cayoca— A youth camp put on by the diocese of Sioux City. I arrived with a heavy heart that first summer, and had two groups of campers to take care of instead of the usual one group. With so many kids to guide, Marita stepped up and helped me with them, when she didn't even know me. I was so grateful for her amazing help, and it sparked a friendship that lasted 20 years. I have some great memories of her at camp, and will always cherish those times we spent together— teaching kids, laughing about so many things, putting on many miles on the walking trail around Twin Lake together, hilarious laughter on camp talent nights, sharing during campfire, and talking until all hours of the night after lights out—just sharing about our families and anything else that came to mind. Special, special times with a beautiful soul now gone too soon. Marita lived her life in a way that could only point to heaven--she inspired me and so many others whose lives she also touched. May God bless each and everyone of you as you see your way through this very difficult time. She loved you all so very much — and I know that because she told me so. ❤️
