“ As her sister there are so many memories but everyone that knew her knew the endless energy she had for helping people. She was always busy on some project, she did not know the word NO. If their was a cause her determination would see to it that it was completed and no stone would be left unturned. If only I was more like you. My love for you and your family will always be!

“ Sympathies to the Dellwo family. I worked at BVRMC while Mary Jo was there. She was always cheerful and pleasant. I remember (either late last year or early this year) when I ran into her at the grocery store, she had to tell me that she was retiring for good this time. She was happy to be able to do all the things you just can't do when you are working all the time. May your family eventually find peace and may Mary Jo rest in everlasting peace.

I would see her often at their home in Lake View as she was outside working in the yard or relaxing. I would also see her at mass in Wall Lake. I always remember Mary Jo with a smile on her face. “ *There are just no words at how shocked I was to hear this. Mary Jo was one of the people who helped change my life for the better 3 years ago and I owe her endlessly. She has always been of great help to me at the apartment. She also listened and had kind words many times. She & her family have been a huge blessing in my life. “ Shock...total shock... she was my friend before she was your “Mom and your Wife. Since kindergarten...she was an athlete.. dodge ball..double jump rope...tether ball...softball... . She was a competitor but with a heart.. always gracious. She was loyal.. she remembered dates/names.... Your birthday... your kids names... she was so smart... and so humble about how smart she was ... she laughed easily... but never at you.. she met your dad at Briar Cliff and never looked at another man like she looked at him. She taught me how to milk cows...and to always be careful and stay away from”number 13”. I loved your Mom/Wife... she was a lifelong friend...she loved all of you with all she had ... and was so proud of her family. I am proud to cal her my friend ... but even prouder that she called me her friend... lots of memories...I will miss her....God Bless Mary Jo... always
