“ Our prayers to Mary's family. Will certainly miss our neighbor. Her wit and humor were constants. Always will remember the smile and twinkle in her eye as in a raspy voice she would have a come back when you teased her. She and Carl were special folks. Peace as God calls Mary Home.

Mary Margaret and I have been friends since Kindergarten. When we retired we grew close. Mary was kind, fun, realistic and was living her life everyday. She hosted coffee every week. We talked, laughed and supported each other. Mary loved her sons and their families. Mary was a wise woman. She made great cookies and always sent home some for Larry. We will miss her. Rest in Peace Dear Friend. Jeanne and Larry Calkns
