“ Mike though age and miles have distanced us the memories are many. When we were young, we spent hours together. We probably pulled each other's hair and even shared each other's bottle.

A few more were:

stealing apples from MHI when you had to climb a fence to get in ripping around on bikes that caused a few road rashes in the cinder alley behind the house playing cards in your bedroom (remember Paul) did that only once!

when Aunt Hilda talked you into taking me to a movie (I think we were about 14) " Night of the Grizzly with Clint Walker" my first date teeter tottering in your basement. Not every kid had a tetter tot in their basement lighting the country club grass on fire (Uncle Floyd was not a happy camper}

many many more

Now that you are with Ralph don't let him lift you by your head.

The only regrets I have is that we never had a few and reminisced.
Never could figure out why you would ever jump out of a perfectly good plane and mess up your ankle.

Thank you for being my daughter's godfather.

Brenda I hope this maybe raised a smile or 2 though short We as couples had some very good mems too “ Sheila and I wish to convey our condolences to Brenda, Jadon, Chris and the entire Reinert family. It was shocking to read of Mike's passing this morning. We have lost a good man.

We enjoyed many years of a business and friend relationship with Olsen Welding, Mike, and his talented brothers. I remember back to the first time I met Mike as he became the owner of Olsen Welding. Ivan Olsen told us that Mike would take good care of us and he did for many years! This introduction took place at the original location. Mike and Brenda really developed an excellent shop and business over the years that followed.

So sad for his family and friends, may Mike rest in everlasting peace.
