On July 8, 1958, Norma was united in marriage to Robert Myott. To this union, six children were born: Michael, Teresa, Scott, Curtis, Patricia, and Patrick Joseph (passed away in infancy). She later was united in marriage to John McDonough on January 8, 2005 in Early, Iowa.

A true social butterfly, Norma loved spending time with her friends, especially her cherished birthday group. She was an accomplished bowler for many years, earning numerous trophies and awards. Norma also enjoyed dancing, particularly square dancing in her earlier years. She took great pleasure in spending time on the farm with John and his horses, Tom and Jerry, and enjoyed visiting the Amish to see their special friends. During the warmer months, Norma could often be found tending her garden, canning vegetables, and sitting on the front porch enjoying the simple pleasure of watching the cars go by.

Above all else, Norma treasured time with her family. Her grandchildren and great-grandchildren held a very special place in her heart. Norma will be deeply missed by all who knew and loved her.
