“ Our family goes back a long ways with the Skibsted's as my grandparents lived in the now ghost town of Juniata which bordered the Skibsted farm. In particular their son Larry and I were close in school and played sports together. My mother grew up with them too. Always a sad, reflective time when a parent passes away. I want Larry and the family to know I am thinking of them at this difficult time.

My family lived on a farm next to the Skibsteds. Larry and I were in the same grade at country school in Sulphur Springs. Many fun times were spent playing at their house. Thinking of all of you at this time. Virgie Oatman
