I was so sorry to hear of Pam's death. I had been thinking of her recently and wondering how she was doing. My sympathy to her family. She will be missed by all who knew her. My husband Charles shared the dinner table with her and I joined them each day for dinner before Covid. She and Lenore DeWall told me when and where the Hawkes played. She will also be missed by the Staff at Pocahontas Manor and anyone who knew her. She loved putting puzzles together and her smile was the best. RIP my friend Pam.

I am so fortunate that she was a part of my life. Such a generous heart and good person. I was a better speech clinician because of Pam.

I was so Sorry to hear of Pam's death. My husband Charles shared the dinner table with Pam and others, I ate with them at Pocahontas Manor every day. We enjoyed Pam and the others at that table. I helped her with her clothing protector as I did for others that needed help. She and Lenore were great Hawkeye fans and kept me up to date when they played etc. She loved putting puzzles together. She will be missed by her family, the Manor help and anyone who knew her. She always had a great smile. RIP Pam
