Peggie "Peg" was born October 31, 1934 in Eldora, Iowa. She was the daughter of John and Gladys (Smith) Bogue. She was raised on a farm near New Providence, Iowa and graduated from New Providence, Iowa (home of the Round house), with the class of 1953. She loved being part of the girls basketball team and was proud to represent the school in the State Free

Throw contest. As a young teenager, she and her sisters learned to milk cows and when it was close to milking time, she could be heard calling “come boss” to the field near by. She was expert in getting them to come to the barn. She also worked part-time cleaning house for a local family.

Following graduation, she attended the Evangelical Hospital School of Nursing in Marshalltown, Iowa. She became an R.N. in 1956. She started her nursing career in the OB department at the Fort Dodge, Iowa Hospital. She was one of five sisters who graduated from Evangelical Hospital School of Nursing.

Peg met Delmar Bartling in Iowa Falls and they were married August 18, 1961 at the Little Brown Church in Nashua, Iowa. They were blessed with a son, Michael, and Delmar’s son, Steve, from a previous marriage. They lived in Iowa Falls, then Topeka, Kansas, then Omaha, Nebraska, and then moved to Storm Lake, Iowa.

Their moves related to Delmar’s employment. Delmar passed away in 1985. Peg did not return to nursing after becoming a widow and was employed by several families in the Storm Lake area as a housekeeper and there were more requests for her expertise in caring for a home that she could fill. She also worked at a local restaurant, Embers, part time.

While Delmar was alive, they enjoyed going to a lake, fishing, and spending time outdoors. They especially enjoyed Minnesota. She enjoyed working outside.

In her later years, Peg lived for deer hunting with her son, Mike, and nephew, Andy. She got her first buck with her muzzleloader at the age of 82. Those who hunted with Peg all agree her shooting prowess could leave you speechless. She always enjoyed lunch and coffee time with family and friends.

Peg's mother passed away in 1945 when Peg was ten. Her father married in 1946 to widow, Edna Runyan Bogue. Our family grew from three to ten as we gained six siblings.

Peg was preceded in death by her parents, John and Gladys Bogue, stepmom Edna, 3 siblings in infancy, 2 sisters Betty Partridge (Richard), Patty Ann Ballard (Richard), brothers Bob Runyan, Gene Runyan, and John Runyan.

Peg is survived by sons Steve Bartling, Michael Bartling (Sarah), sisters Patty Lou Nichol and Midge Thornton (David).

“ I loved Peg. She was an awesome lady. We first met working together at Embers. She was spunky!! And that made her so much fun. We often ran into each other & had a fun time catching up. When I worked at Methodist Manor I would stop in often to visit with Peg. Rest easy awesome lady. My thoughts are with her family.

“ I have great memories of Peg and her immaculate lawn in the 80s - she lived just down the street from my Grandma and I went to school with Mike. She was a great lady! Sending condolences to the family.

“ First of all, I have to say that Peg would have loved the photo you used with her and that buck she hunted down with her muzzleloader! I remember when she did that! She loved every minute of hunting with Michael and Andy!

She was a joy for our family as she helped clean for us and became our best friend. She loved it in the Spring when I was too busy teaching and she could clean out my flower bed instead of cleaning the house. She was so delighted because she enjoyed so many different things. One year, I was running behind getting my classroom ready, so she came to help me. She had so much fun!

I know that Michael, Patty, and the rest of her family will miss her so I just want you all to know that you are in my prayers! I know she is at peace and is in a better place!

Thinking of you all,
Dee Lewis and Family
