It was my good fortune to have all of the Hale children in my classroom. Each had a positive attitude, a work ethic in class, excellent manners and respect for others. Wilma was caring for these delightful children alone much of the time, as Mr. Hale served his Country. I always looked forward to our Parent-Teacher conferences. One could readily see why the children had flourished with such a positive, caring, supportive Mother. Her support and appreciative attitude toward the help her children received at school was truly rewarding as a teacher. Raymond and Wilma, you have left a wonderful legacy for your Life on Earth---your Family. Well done as you are again reunited in Eternity. Raymond may you RIP. God Bless this wonderful Family. My sincere condolences and Love to all, Bonnie Mester
