

Reverend Henry W. Huddleston Jr.

July 13, 1925 - January 14, 2011

Reverend Henry Huddleston, age 85, of Storm Lake, Iowa died January 14, 2011 at Buena Vista Regional Medical Center in Storm Lake. Henry Huddleston was born July 13, 1925, in Whitman, Massachusetts, the son of Henry W. and Beatrice E. (Little) Huddleston. Growing up, Henry was baptized and confirmed at the United Methodist Church in Whitman. Henry attended school in Whitman, where he graduated from Whitman High School in 1943. Following high school graduation, in 1943, Henry enlisted in the United States Navy where he served his country during World War II until he was honorably discharged in 1946. Upon returning home, Henry continued his education where he graduated in 1952 with a Law Degree from Northeastern University in Boston, Massachusetts and later, receiving his Masters of Divinity from Bangor Theological Seminary in Bangor, Maine. On July 15, 1962, Henry was united in marriage to Marjorie Holmes at the United Methodist Church in Whitman. Together, they were blessed with three children: Mark, Matthew and Holly. Henry was a member of the Masons, ACLU, NAACP, and very involved in the Civil Rights movement and a leader for the Boy Scouts. He was always willing to lend a helping hand to those in need. He enjoyed different types of dancing, which include swing and tap. He loved the outdoors, especially hiking, camping, fishing, bird watching and photography. Henry loved spending time with his family and will be deeply missed by all who knew and loved him. Those left to cherish his memory include his children: Mark Huddleston; Matthew (Sara) Huddleston of Storm Lake; and Holly Huddleston

(Patricia Mickunas) of Des Moines; granddaughter, Alexis Huddleston; sisters-in-law; Phyllis Huddleston; Gloria Huddleston; Janet Holmes; and Constance Holmes Dâ€™Amato; extended family and friends. Reverend Henry was preceded in death by his parents; wife, Marjorie; two brothers and three sisters.

“ When I began my ministry at the Renwick Baptist Church in Renwick, IA, in 1987, Pastor Huddleston was one of the first persons to come for a visit and to welcome me to the community. He had a warm spirit and a fine sense of humor. The four pastors in our community at that time worked well together. Best wishes to Pastor Huddleston's family and friends. Pastor Jeremy Spencer.
