“ I shared many coffee times with Richard when my Mom was a resident there. He always liked my raisen oatmeal cookies so was happy when I brought those. My husband, Dick, also enjoyed him as he liked to talk about sports and the Minn. teams. May he rest in peace.

“ Our family enjoyed talking with Richard during the years that our mother resided in the Pleasant View Home in Albert City. He always offered to buy us coffee and liked to visit. We admired his spirit and spunk and his interest in lots of world affairs. He is a character I will always remember, and I mean that in a kind way.
