“ Roger was an excellent livestock man. I bought thousands of feeder pigs from him over the years. Not once did we ever have an agreed on price. The pigs were unloaded and in the pen, then we talked price. Not many men you can do business with like that.

“ So sorry Judy, Roger had his struggles these last years and you were his faithful caregiver. What a blessing you were for him. I many memories of the neighbors exchanging labor for hay bailing and corn shelling. Mike and Brian became good friends during those summers. Roger always had that wonderful smile and enjoyed a good laugh. I treasure those memories of those years of long ago.

“ I am sorry to learn that Roger passed away. Although I haven't seen Roger for years, the image that immediately came to mind was of him laughing heartily at some extended family gathering. With sympathy to all who mourn his loss. Nina (Mattheis) Carley
