“ We give thanks for years of memories with dear cousins Ron, BoniJo and family. Ron was his jolly self when he played the role of family Santa Clause for our little ones. He did that out of the joy and love he had for his family. We have been truly blessed by his presence in our lives. Heartfelt sympathy and love to the whole family. Blessed be his memory.

“ I was not related to Ron by blood, but I still considered him my grandpa and he considered me a granddaughter. I will always remember sitting on his lap and watching TV, going to the Scott country fair to watch horses, or eating dinner together. It's the little things I remember because they meant the most to me. He always called me his girl and I will always be his girl. Miss you forever grandpa.
