In lieu of flowers, the family requests that memorials be made to the Carmelite Nuns of Sioux City, Iowa, or St. Boniface Catholic Church in Waukee, Iowa. Born on December 16, 1929, in Varina, Iowa, to August "Gus" and Leona (Fitzgerald) Kapsch, Shannon was a woman whose life was defined by her deep faith, boundless love, and joyful spirit. Baptized and confirmed at St. Columbkille Catholic Church, Shannon remained a devoted member until the church's closure. Her Catholic faith was the cornerstone of her being. Her days were filled with prayer, often spent with rosary in hand, seeking comfort and guidance from Jesus and the Blessed Mother for every challenge and joy that came her way.

Shannon attended St. Columbkille Catholic High School, graduating in 1948. Even in her youth, her nurturing spirit shone brightly as she lovingly cared for her siblings, often baking them her delicious chocolate cakes and ensuring they made it to school each day.

On April 10, 1951, Shannon married the love of her life, Francis Lynch, at St. Columbkille Catholic Church. Their union was blessed with four children: Marcia, Cindy, Becky, and Terry. Together, Shannon and Francis created a home filled with love, kindness, and faith.

Shannon's strong work ethic was matched only by her generosity and talent in the kitchen. She spent many years working at Walsh Lockers, Sundholm's Factory, and the Varina Elevator before serving as a postal worker for the United States Postal Service. Shannon's grandchildren fondly remember accompanying her on her mail routes, marveling at her strength as she effortlessly handled heavy mailbags.

However, it was Shannon's baking that truly made her a legend among family and friends. Her cinnamon rolls, pies, scotcheroos, and noodles were cherished by all who were fortunate enough to taste them. These treats were not just food but expressions of the love she poured into everything she did.

Shannon was also deeply involved in her community. She was a dedicated member of the Varina Library Board, the Varina Legion Auxiliary, the Catholic Daughters of America, and Holy Family. In her free time, Shannon loved playing cards with friends and family, often engaging in friendly but competitive games that brought her great joy.

Shannon had a zest for life that extended beyond her kitchen. She and Francis were avid dancers, with Shannon leading the way and teaching Francis how to keep up with her on the dance floor. Their love for dancing reflected the joy and harmony they shared throughout their marriage.

Shannon's love for her family was boundless. She cherished every moment spent with them, whether during family gatherings or simple, everyday moments. To be loved by Shannon was to know a love that was unconditional, unwavering, and rooted in her deep faith.

Though Shannon will be deeply missed, those who knew and loved her take comfort in knowing she is now in the presence of the Lord, joyfully reunited with her beloved Francis, her favorite dance partner.

Shannon is survived by her children: Marcia Lynch; Cindy (Jerry) Christenson; Becky Lynch; Terry (Laurie) Lynch; her grandchildren: John (Christy) Christenson; Lisa (David) Spaeth; Laura (fiancé Adam Wicks) Kunkel; Kayla (Drew) Engebrecht; and her great-grandchildren: Braelee Kunkel; Nolan and Jordyn Spaeth; Isaac and Lucas Christenson. She is also survived by her siblings: Patrick (Doris) Kapsch; Linda Groff; sister-in-law Betty Segó; brother-in-law Marlyn Null; as well as numerous nieces, nephews, extended family members, and friends.

Shannon was preceded in death by her beloved husband, Francis Lynch; parents, Gus and Leona Kapsch; siblings: Bob (Peg) Kapsch; Maureen (Tom) Lilly; Charles (Dorothy) Kapsch; infant brother Michael Kapsch; and her siblings-in-law: Patrick Groff; Margaret (Vern) Olberding; Ed (Ike) Lynch; Carmie Null; and Hank Segó.

Shannon Lynch lived a life full of faith, love, and joy. Her legacy of devotion to God and her family will live on in the hearts of all who were blessed to know her.

“ My sincerest condolences to all. I fondly remember Shannon growing up. My Mom drove 1 of the rural postal routes to Jolley and Knoke and Dad worked for the post office so Fran and Shannon were a part of our lives. She was always very friendly and bubbly. So sorry for your loss.

“ Our thoughts and prayers to Shannon’s family with special thoughts to Terry and Laurie. Shannon was a gem. Loved how she would greet you with “kiddo” and a big smile. So fondly remember when we invited Bob and her to demonstrate their dance steps at the FCS gym. They were fantastic and for so many years later the kids recalled their talent. She was and remains simply a beautiful person who gifted us all with her positive attitude and interest in you as a person. God’s Peace to the Lynch family.
