“ I remember Shelley as a young, BEAUTIFUL, funny and always entertaining woman. Shelley was always full of life and I remember her being extremely proud of her two beautiful daughters and a VERY loving husband. Shelly could most definitely be the life of the party wherever she was...and of course she loved the Lord! She was a kind soul...just thinking about her makes me wish she was here so I could give her a hug. Shelley will always have a special place in my heart, I believe that even though she is gone in body her spirit will remain with her family, today and forever...thoughts and prayers to her family.
