Shirley and I grew up together as we are only six months apart in age. I have many memories of when the Petersen family and Paul Toohey family would go to Omaha for Christmas. Also, I remember all of our visits to Storm Lake when we were young.

*My prayers and love are with you,
Mary Jane Toohey Garrison*

Shirley was, without a doubt, one of my favorite people I have ever worked with (at Utell in the 90s). We always seemed to have a mutual understanding as I could tell what she was telling me with just a look. I have always missed that and will continue to miss her. My thoughts are with all of you.
