“ People like Stacy do not come along very often - she was the best legal assistant, always had a smile on her face and a positive attitude. She even taught me how to make Scotcheroos just the right way. My condolences to her family for their tremendous loss, especially to Cooper, her greatest treasure.

“ I can't even count the number of laughs Stacy and I had in our younger years. From playing Barbies, buying matching outfits for the 1st day of school, choir, making up dances and lip syncing to NKOTB (arguing over who was the cutest-I still say it's Donnie, Stac would argue Jordan), Girl Scouts, slumber parties at her house, at my house, in a tent in her backyard, on my front porch, meeting at the playground, the Newell pool, and fireworks on the 4th... there isn't anywhere in town I don't have a memory of Stacy. I'll cherish those memories forever. Love, Heidi (Bogue) McGee

“ Our prayers for God's healing Peace to Stacy's family. We both will long treasure our visit with Stacy at the care center such a short while ago. So many laughs, smiles and recalling of days at school. And her laughter and smiles at the benefit are so clear in mind. Most of all we will always feel the big sincere hugs she gave us. Everything came from her heart. It is truly a blessing that one so young could inspire so many from the youngest to the oldest. She has and continues to do that for us.
