Steven "Reno" Christiansen, age 55, of Schaller, Iowa died Sunday, May 1, 2016 at St. Luke's Regional Medical Center in Sioux City, Iowa.

A Celebration of Life service will be held at a later date. The Fratzke & Jensen Funeral Home in Schaller is in charge of the arrangements.

Steven D. Christiansen was born March 4, 1961 in Reno, Nevada, the son of Floyd and Ruth (Habbena) Christiansen.

Steve "Reno" grew up in Reno, where he graduated from high school.

On August 5, 2011, Reno was united in marriage to Lisa Connor on the pier in Storm Lake, Iowa. He was the proud father of Jesse, Matt, Ronnie, and Brandon.

Reno was a workaholic, but truly enjoyed his job. He raised hogs and was a sanitation specialist. Every day before work, Reno would enjoy a cup of coffee and watch morning church.

In 2013, Reno was baptized into the Christian faith at The Shepherd's Chapel in Gravette, Arkansas. His love and trust in the Lord was evident for all those who knew him.

Reno's dogs and cat were very special to him. Most of all, he loved having fun and making memories with his family and friends. Reno touched the lives of many, and will be deeply missed by all who knew and loved him.

Those left to cherish his memory include his wife, Lisa Christiansen of Schaller, Iowa; children: Jesse Nikodym of Pierre, South Dakota; Matt Anderson of Schaller, Iowa; Ronnie Nikodym of Minot, North Dakota; Brandon Nikodym of Watertown, South Dakota; five grandchildren; close friend, Richard Rush of Fremont, Nebraska; many aunts, uncles, cousins; extended family and friends.

Reno was preceded in death by his parents; and twin sister, Sherri.
