“ She was the best nana and always made you laugh..if you were lucky enough to have met her, you were better for it. I remember her and my son, Shawn, sitting on the end of her bed watching The Price is Right, how excited he used to get when they spun the wheel... there are too many memories to share but will forever be in my heart. You are missed nana. Please give dad a hug for me... love u always

“ I have so many awesome memories, nana. The time we went to bingo with auntie Helen and Nanette and I started to go into labor, it was so funny to hear you say..."you can finish the game, right?" Watching you and Shawn watch the Price is Right. You will be missed and were loved by so many. Rest in peace, nana I love you.

*I grew up with Auntie Vera always on my side. She'd watch me put on false fingernails at Autumn Ave with a smile. I stayed at the house on the Pond with Uncle Larry and Vera always with the boys. So happy to have been loved by my auntie and will miss her terribly.

“ *Vera used to call me everyday and if I wasn't home she would say Where ARE you? She always called me her "ittle tister". I will miss that but I will hear her voice on the phone as I went on my answering service and I hadn't deleted it so I can hear her voice every day. I feel so alone right now but time will heal. Love you Vera
Thank god I was with her last summer at the pond.*
