Milton Wayne Robb was born June 29, 1927 in Cherokee to Floyd and Eva (Duvall) Robb. He received his education in Cherokee.

Wayne enlisted in the Navy and saw action in the Pacific Theater. After his honorable discharge, he worked for Fareway for 12 years and later as an area supervisor for the northern half of Iowa for Imperial Oil. His last employer was Harold Carlson as a finish carpenter, a job he truly enjoyed.

Wayne built a home for his family on Storm Lake, loving the sun rise and sun set over the water for 18 years.

Retirement meant doing gardening and helping LaVonne with housework. Following his retirement, Wayne did a lot of volunteer work for the Buena Vista Historical Society Museum which included designing and making all of the display cases in the lobby as well as similar work in the main area.

Wayne had a wonderful sense of humor and brought smiles and laughter to all. His family was a great joy to him. He will be gone, but never forgotten.

Those left to cherish his memory include his wife, LaVonne; children: Sue Ruden, Steve (Clara) Robb, and Sarita Henricksen; grandchildren: Michelle Simmons, Nathan Ruden, and Nikki Danielsen; Seth (Branæ) Robb and Mark (Brooke) Robb; Adam Mastrodomenico, Montana Henricksen, and Nevada Henricksen; 10 great-grandchildren; and extended family and friends.
