Which he did for me and my husband, remodeling our house or if I needed help at home, he was their. Camping & just plain being together as friends. We will miss you Willie. My Prayers for comfort to your family.*

“ I met Will in his younger days with alot of other kids and we always met in Storm Lake and hung out. We played what we called CB tag and had a blast. Then one night he convinced his Mom to play with us. She learned why he got home wee hours in the morning. He called me Ma. Also great memories in Schaller when we grilled and climbed trees and got stuck. I will cherish ALL the good memories with my adopted so, will.
